My own Darling One -

7 p.m. - Feb 3rd
1942.

I've just rinky you up - & got Rossiter!!!
Then turn to my letter & see you are at a pantomime. I'm so glad and do hope it is a good one -

Of course I ought to have read your letter more carefully & known - but I really have not had time to read it straight through till now - after putting the call on. This morning I was busy after taking Gylhim to school making pieshkas of dinner & Joan did the laundry & I also made up & posted your parcel - your letter of this a.m. before me as I made the pieshkas - Then Gylhim came home crying with earache - and has kept me on the go ever since - I gave her Empirin $\frac{1}{2}$ tablet and it eased the pain a bit - & put in drops of H_2O_2 - as Dr. Holthy ordered of the other - Tonight her temperature is 99.4 - (in groin) I gave her another $\frac{1}{2}$ tab Empirin when I put her to bed - she seems to have settled down - It is just 4 weeks today since I first heard a huskiness in her voice that sounds as tho' it came from her chest. Had she been easier to manage I should have put her to bed that day instead of two days later

Penna seems to be quite well now (except for a little bad temper which I hope is just a sign of her being better & not anything else - I'm quite well today at last - It has not been a serious cold in a way - but so difficult to throw off - no head cold for any of us at any time -

I've got some Rose Hip Syrup now - as the long promised oranges have not turned up yet - M^{rs} Butler says we may have them this week end -

Now for your letters -

I hope you had a nice service on Sunday at Little St Marys - after facing the blizzard - and so glad you had $3\frac{1}{2}$ hrs sleep in the afternoon - I hope your own cold is better - Your first letter came this a.m. & second this afternoon - The latter with its lovely enclosure was shared by Gillian who was on the couch with me -

What a day you had on Friday - How do you like the Radnor Commission meetings? Glad they give you a good lunch - So glad the ^{big} parcel came at the right time - I've posted this weeks parcel to you - smaller this time - but with 2 eggs - This is because M^{rs} Bunting

Another Penna Story

Tom was attending to the hoover fire - I heard Penna say "Tom, on the Carpet!!!" I went to see a Penna speaking in a shocked tone - for all the world like Gertrude Bush or pulling the coal skuttle off the Carpet - She had never heard me say that for I've never seen Tom put the coal skuttle on the Carpet -
