

Grace

has never had a doll in her life and asks for one. I've promised her one for Xmas & have put 1/6 on a beauty in White Elephant raffle

When off duty the other day instead of going home she got a book and the Panda + the ice cream cart & sat out in the garden so. Penna gave me a bath the other day - after insisting that I put my foot rather far out she said - "Mumnie, you ain't falling out are you?"

My foot.

Bath with me in it.

Think your idea re Hildas money a very good one. Nice to think of that trip as her present and to have the anxiety off your mind.

Wonder what Paul will think of Maycock's book. Must go to and hunt for savetys for dinner now

All my love darlings Ada